OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

WAR DEPARTMENT,

WASHINGTON, June 22.—10 P. M.

To General Dix:

Dispatches from City Point at 4:30 this evening, report no fighting to-day. Movements are in progress, however, which are not now proper for publication.

The Richmond papers report an attack upon Lynchburg by General Hunter on Saturday, and that he was repulsed.

It is believed, however, that there was nothing more than a reconnaissance, and that having ascertained the place to be strongly defended, General Hunter withdrew and is operating on the enemy's communications at other points.

A dispatch from General Sherman, dated yesterday evening at 8:30, states that it has raised almost incessantly, in spite of which, our lines have been pressed forward steadily and that an important position has been gained by General Howard.

The enemy made a desperate attempt to re-take this position last night, making seven distinct assaults on Whitaker's brigade of Stanley's division, and losing not less than 700 or 800 men. Two hundred killed were left on Whitaker's front.

The assault was followed by a heavy fire of artillery, under which the position was fortified and is now safe. Our cavalry is across Noyes Creek on our left and one brigade of the 23d Corps is across Noyes Creek on the right, but the rebel left is behind a swamp, and the rains prevent any advance. The fighting has been quite severe at all points, the enemy resisting stubbornly and attempting the ofensive whenever he can.

General Sigel reports from Martinsburg to-day that there is no truth in the statement of the Philadelphia Inquirer, of the 21st, in relation to a raid by Mosby's

Winchester is not occupied by the enemy, nor are the telegraph wires cut between this place and Harper's Ferry.

No military intelligence from any other quarter has been received to-day by this Department.

Signed, E. M. STANTON.

FROM WASHINGTON.

(Special Dispatch to the Cleveland Leader.)

First Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—9 P. M.

The latest reports from the Army of the Potomac are under date of headquarters,

June 21st. Every thing was quiet along the lines, except that the rebels have developed new batteries of heavy rifled guns across the Appomattox, with which they shelled General Wright's headquarters for thirty minutes; the General and staff escaped injury, but two non-commissioned officers and several privates were killed instantly by the explosion of a shell. We opened three batteries on those guns and soon succeeded in silencing them. It is believed here, from information obtained from prisoners and deserters, that nine brigades of Ewell's corps have gone to oppose Hunter.

Petersburg papers of the 18th complain bitterly. Our batteries are shelling the town without any warning having been given the inhabitants, among whom there is great terror.

An article copied from the Charleston

Mercury of last Tuesday says:

For the first time during several weeks there was an intermission of bombardment last Monday. This was doubtless owing to bad weather. During Sunday last seven shells were thrown into the city. The enemy's troops seemed actively engaged in repairing damages which rains have caused there.

Our Successionville correspondent writes from that post that visitors from the Yankee batteries, in the shape of shells, are still inconveniently plentiful. On Sunday, they threw 11 shells from Light House Island, and 10 from Long Island.

Yesterday they threw 21 from the former and 23 from the latter. Our batteries responded as usual.

For some time past it has been known that a batch of Yankee prisoners comprising some of the highest in rank now in our hands, were soon to be brought hither to share the pleasures of the bombardment.

They accordingly arrived on Monday. The following are their names:

Rank, Brigadier General Seymour;

Wessels, Seaman, Shaler and Heckman;

Colonels, Hoyer, Hawkins, Harrison,

Lehman, Loggins, Lee, White, Billinger,

Brown, Doss and Gardell.

Lieutenant Colonel, Hays, Hunter;

Alcott, Pottler, Rogers, Burnham, Baldwin, Bartholomew, Cook, Dickenson, Fellow, Swift, Fairbanks, Spotsford,

Stewart, Glenn, Taylor, Lascell, Jaelyn, McMakin, Miles, Maxwell, Mayhew and Moffitt.

Major, Clark; Carpenter, Crandell,

Grant, Hall, Johnston, Barnes, Baker,

Bates.
